

WHY THE WAIT?

Everyone in B.C. Deserves Timely Access to the Specialist Care They Need

THE PROBLEM

An estimated 1.2 million British Columbians are currently waiting to see a Specialist Physician.

This isn't due to lack of effort by your doctor - It's a result of growing challenges in our health care system. Thankfully, there are immediate and long-term solutions on the table that will begin tackling this crisis and bringing down wait times.
